“ Bob was truly a good man, and a great neighbor. He loved working in his yard, and I admired his work ethic. I would visit him and check up on him from time to time. When he would leave his garage open and I didn't see him, I would go check on him. I usually would find him on his porch swing in the back yard eating some ice cream. A great man, great neighbor, and a great human being. Bob will truly be missed. Our thoughts a prayers to his family. John and Rachel
